

ALLERGY SAFETY IN SCHOOLS: BENEDICT'S LAW AWARENESS

Help school staff understand Benedict's Law and their role in creating a safer, more inclusive environment for pupils with allergies.

This online course introduces Benedict's Law and how school staff can support pupils with allergies. It should be completed alongside appropriate allergy and emergency adrenaline training. It does not replace your school's allergy safety policy, Individual Healthcare Plans, Allergy Action Plans or local procedures.

Areas covered

- What Benedict's Law is
- How schools identify and manage allergy risks
- How school staff support pupils with allergies
- How schools prepare for and respond to allergy emergencies
